10th ANNUAL WINE LABEL ART CONTEST

Carpenter Creek Cellars
Strawberry Wine Label Design Competition
For Prairie Arts Council's 2023 Rock the Arts:

What: A design challenge to create an original wine label artwork to be featured on the 2023 10th Edition of Carpenter Creek Cellars Annual Strawberry Wine, celebrating and fundraising for PAC's Rock the Arts Festival.

Who May Enter: Artists of all ages

Requirements:

- You may use any colorful art medium including but not limited to colored pencil, paint, pastels, collage, printmaking, digital design, stitchery, embroidery, etc.
- Artwork must be in color.
- Finished art must be a 2-dimensional work of original art, measuring exactly 4" high x 2 ¾" wide. Leave at least a 1" margin around all edges.
- Your original design and theme should include a focus on a musical and/or art theme that is uplifting and inspirational. Other images may be included.
- Each artist may submit one, two, or three entrees.
- Original artwork may be mailed or hand delivered to the PAC office (see details below).

SPECIAL 30th ANNIVERSARY EXHIBITION THEME:

To celebrate our 30th Anniversary, we are highlighting the work and life of artist Lilian Fendig, our gallery's namesake. We are encouraging (but not requiring) artists to create work inspired by the life and work of Lilian. You are invited to submit one or more works with a "Fendig Theme". You can learn about Lilian and see information about her work here with examples here or contact us for more details.
